BECOME A MEMBER OF THE MODERN SLAVERY HELPLINE BUSINESS PORTAL!

Do you want to know more about the potential risks in your business and supply chains? Do you want to collaborate? Do you want real-time information about potential forced labour situations? Do you want to partner with a leading organisation?

Then join Unseen's Helpline Business Portal and get access to real-time information and data that will help you manage your risk of exposure to modern slavery and forced labour.

Quote from Tesco's Modern Slavery Statement:

'Through the Unseen business portal, we will be able to gain visibility of potential cases relating to Tesco raised by both internal and external parties. Where necessary, these will be investigated by experienced Responsible Sourcing and Group Security colleagues. As well as working in partnership to expand the helpline, Unseen will also support us in ensuring remediation for victims if cases of modern slavery are identified'.

Our unique information and dataset allows us to work with businesses to tackle issues that are happening on the ground. Using information directly from Modern Slavery Helpline calls, the Portal provides regular access to reports of forced labour and offers a trusting and confidential environment in which businesses can collaborate, learn and access remediation support through Unseen's specialist teams.

Join the growing number of businesses who want to be ahead of the game!
